

Feng Shui Professional Course

Looking for a Career Change?

The Feng Shui Professional Course conducted by Master Jodi Brunner is accredited by Master Joseph Yu and the Feng Shui Research Centre, headquarters in Toronto, Canada.

Modules 1 to 4 cover about 64 hours of lecture, plus supplementary tutorials. When students have completed the modules they are accepted into Master Yu's restricted mailing list where they may access archives, ask questions and interact with other students around the world.

To complete the course, students are required to submit a practical examination. Upon successful completion, a Certificate of Completion is awarded, issued by the Feng Shui Research Centre and signed by Master Jodi Brunner and Master Joseph Yu.

The course fee is A$3000 + GST which includes

- Course Manuals for each Module
- Course Workbook for each Module
- Practitioner Training Course plus Manual written by Master Jodi Brunner
- Access to password protected area on the website
- Practical examination
- Course Recordings
- Feng Shui template

Course modules are conducted using PowerPoint presentations. Morning and afternoon tea is provided. The purchase of a professional Feng Shui Luo Pan is optional.

Higher Diploma

Successful practitioners will be acknowledged on the website and then may work towards their Higher Diploma:

- after participating and demonstrating their knowledge in the mailing list;
- after submitting a written report;
- upon payment of an examination fee.

Thereafter the practitioner may be listed as a certified practitioner on both the FSRC Australia website Master Yu's website with a set-up fee of US$60 and an annual maintenance fee of US$60. If the practitioner attends one of Master Yu's seminars in the previous calendar year, this annual fee is waived.

Master of Feng Shui, Feng Shui Research Centre or MFS, FSRC

The FSRC has a points system in place, leading to the Master of Feng Shui accreditation. This system requires a dedicated student of high caliber to qualify. The points earned in this course go towards the title. The point system is only the necessary requirement for mastership. It is not an automatic system.

FSRC Australia Call +613 9662 1011 www.fsrc.com.au

Feng Shui Professional Course

FSRC Australia Call +613 9662 1011 www.fsrc.com.au

Module 1

- Introduction
- Yin and Yang
- Five Elements
- Ba Gua
- Architecture
- He Tu & Luo Shu
- Shuo Gua Zhuan
- Ancient Wisdom
- Feng Shui Objects
- Interior Design

Module 2

- Mountains
- Rivers
- 28 Xiu
- Eight House School 1
- Eight House School 2
- Qing Nan Jing
- Various Exercises

Modules 3 & 4

This seminar focuses on Xuan Kong Fei Xing (Flying Stars). Students are guided step by step through the basics of the Flying Stars, which has become popular in recent years; and even masters who practice the Eight House School only are now teaching the Flying Stars. People who practice the BTB are also teaching Flying Stars.

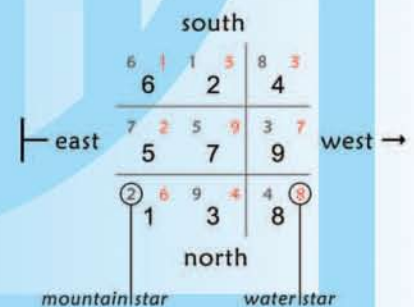

However, if you want to practice the Flying Stars effectively, you must understand the basics.

What are the basics?

You find the following list in most courses:

Module 3: Xuan Kong Fei Xing I (Time Space Flying Stars I)

- 3 Cycles and 9 Periods
- How to Construct a Flying Star Chart
- Water Stars and Mountain Stars
- The Four Basic Types of Charts
- The personalities of the Nine Stars
- Holy 1 and Holy 0 (Zheng Shen and Ling Shen)
- Combination of Stars with Reference to Xuan Kong Mi Zhi, Xuan Ji Fu, Fei Xing Fu and Zi Bai Jue
- Case Studies

Module 4: Xuan Kong Fei Xing II (Time Space Flying Stars II)

- How to Analyze a Star Chart
- Excerpts from Yang Zhai Zhi Nan (A Guide to Houses for the Living) by Qing Dynasty Master Jiang Dahong
- Adding Up to Ten and the Significance
- Parents' Trigrams (Fu Mo San Ban Gua) and the Significance
- Pearl String and the Significance
- Fu Yin and Fan Yin
- Castle Gate theory
- Exterior and Interior Forms
- Feng Shui of Commercial Complexes
- Practical Work

